

READING TERMINAL MARKET DAY STALL APPLICATION

Date received RTMC _____

Please write neatly, answer all questions, be specific, and include all information. Use another sheet of paper if needed. Return completed application to Reading Terminal Market Corporation, Management Office, 12th and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, PA 19107. This application is valid for one year.

GUIDELINES:

Day stalls may be available on a limited basis to persons who offer merchandise consistent with the nature of the Reading Terminal Market: Merchandise should be food or food related products (Philadelphia Health Code strictly enforced). Other merchandise may be allowed at the discretion of the manager. Day stalls are usually not available for the sale of products currently offered in the market. Day stalls are carts, tables or counters, placed at the discretion of the manager and are subject to being moved on short or no notice. There is no guarantee that a particular stall may be in a particular place unless the license is made for a month long period. Cooking and refrigeration are prohibited. Licensees may not use common area furniture and must provide their own chairs. Storage may be provided for licensees returning the next day, otherwise, all merchandise must be removed from the market after each business day. Licensee shall carry and keep in force Comprehensive General Liability with a limit of $1,000,000 Combined Single Limit for Bodily Injury including Personal Injury and Property Damage, Premises, Operations, and Contractual Liability. The Policy shall name Reading Terminal Market Corporation and Pennsylvania Convention Center Authority as "Additional Insured".
